Trendsetting Earrings on Access Hollywood

September 2009

Los Angeles, CA

Access Hollywood, the show for all things celebrity, did a segment showcasing the hottest trends and styles that will be seen at the 2009 Emmy Awards. Among the collections of jaw-dropping jewelry, was a glamorous pair of one-of-a-kind Sasha Primak sectional earrings. Made in platinum, each earring features a pear-shaped diamond at the top, a marquise-cut diamond in the middle, and a large pear-shaped emerald at the bottom.
