“Shimmer Time: Sparkling Jewels That Are Perfect For The Bride”

A wedding is an incredibly special and rare moment in a person’s life. To celebrate this occasion, brides go through extraordinary measures to look their best. A fairytale dress is a good start, a beautiful engagement ring is a must, but what other jewelry would serve to best accessorize her look? Among the suggestions in this article, one of the most unique is a handmade rose-cut-diamond-encrusted, 18k yellow gold ivy tiara, made as part of a capsule collection by Sasha Primak in collaboration with fashion designer Erin Fetherston.
